

Information Release and Privacy Policy

Beta Alpha Psi (BAP) and Epsilon Tau Chapter may publicize and distribute documentation and/or pictures highlighting events and projects undertaken by BAP, Epsilon Tau Chapter, or its members. Publications may include electronic and/or printed media. Pictures may be accompanied by identification details including member names or they may be anonymous. Much of the information collected in this contract is required by Beta Alpha Psi and other entities. Therefore, all requested information is required to remain in good standing with Beta Alpha Psi and Epsilon Tau Chapter.

The information you supply is stored in the Reporting Intranet and internal and external databases. You have the right to correct any personal information held by BAP in its databases. Routine corrections, changes, and inquiries should be directed to the Epsilon Tau Chapter reporting secretary. The information is also made available to the National Office, conference planners, meeting and competition committees, the alumni, and Epsilon Tau Chapter.

Beta Alpha Psi will use the email address provided in this contract to contact and inform you about services available as a Beta Alpha Psi member or alumni. BAP may also access your records to identify students who may be eligible for employment opportunities and may pass on a subset of the records to employers.

The information you supply to Beta Alpha Psi is used to maintain a record of your: membership, communication, activities, disability assistance, and contact information. BAP must satisfy, when requested, the statistical and data requirements of any governmental, grant giving bodies, and the Internal Revenue Service.

Other than the exceptions above, Beta Alpha Psi and Epsilon Tau Chapter does not disclose personal information about members except with the consent of the member concerned or where required/authorized by legislation or court proceedings.
